The Poetry of Glacier National Park

Whitefish Community Center is excited to present a four-part series in February entitled “Roads, Rocks, & Ruins – The Poetry of Glacier National Park”. Each part of this captivating series will explore a different and unique aspect of the park we treasure and love.

The series, presented by four expert naturalists who have worked within the park, will take us from the winding Going-to-the-Sun Road to the mountains upon which the road was built, through abandoned ruins scattered throughout the park and to the scenery which continues to inspire us to create art and poetry.

The presentations will be held at the Center every Wednesday evening in February beginning Wednesday, February 1, at 5:30 pm.

February 1, 5:30 pm

Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow: The Going-to-the-Sun Road

Presented by long-time Glacier Park educator and biologist Bill Schustrom

February 8, 5:30 pm

If Rocks Could Talk

Presented by geologist and Glacier Park educator Teagan Tomlin

February 15, 5:30 pm

All That Remains

Presented by environmental scientist and Glacier Park educator Mel Graf

February 22, 5:30 pm

The Spirit of Glacier in Poetry

Presented by long-time Glacier Park educator and poet Doug Follett

Come and explore the wonders of Glacier National Park through these informational and educational presentations.

Royal Coronation

Join us on Thursday, February 2, at 11 am for the coronation of Pat and Colin Colbert, the Center’s King and Queen for the LXIV Winter Carnival. This year’s Carnival theme is Fire & Ice, Celebrating Montana’s First Responders. The entire 2023 Royal Court will join us to crown the royal couple. Come join in! Please call for reservations: (406)862-4923
